Technical information

However you use Pilkington glass it is essential for safety and performance reasons that it is correctly specified and installed. Common areas of impact risk, where it is recommended that impact safety glass classified by BS EN 12600 is installed, include:

- Glazed doors
- Glazing adjacent to doors
- Low level glazing
- Bathroom areas
- Protective barriers
- Furniture and cabinets

Level 5

- Pilkington Texture Glass offers privacy and style throughout the home.
- Five levels of privacy are available, graded from 1 (least obscuration) to 5 (greatest obscuration).
- There are 12 original patterns in the main range, including exclusive designs by Oliver Heath of Blustin Heath Design, a regular on the BBC's Home Front and Changing Rooms series.
- All are available toughened or laminated for safety and security.
- All are suitable for double glazing.
- The range is widely available from your local glass merchant or glazier.

For privacy, pure style or to allow more light into internal rooms, decorative glass gives you a whole range of attractive options. In fact, Pilkington gives you no fewer than 18 different textured glass designs, together with our premium range of etched glass – from classic to contemporary, no one offers a bigger choice.

The advantages of Pilkington decorative glass are easy to see, too: it allows maximum light while maintaining privacy or obscuring unattractive views, and also forms an attractive decorative feature itself.

With new texture designs regularly added and the Pilkington Oriel etched glass range offering even more possibilities, there really is no better choice of decorative glass for your home.
